

Alpine Artisans invites you to become an AAI Sustaining Member.

The AAI Board is encouraging you to consider enrolling as a sustaining member. Sustaining Member dues can be paid as a once a year contribution or as an automatic monthly deduction from a credit card or your personal bank account. The amount donated above a standard AAI membership is considered a non-profit donation and therefore Sustaining Members will receive an end-of-the year letter acknowledging your donation for tax purposes.

For the auto deduction from your credit card, fill out the authorization information below and send it to Alpine Artisans, P.O. Box 841, Seeley Lake, MT. 59868. This is processed confidentially and securely.

To deduct automatically from a Citizens Alliance Bank account, please complete the Direct Deposit Authorization Form found on the AAI website Join Now page (towards the bottom), and submit it to Citizens Alliance Bank, P.O. Box 720, Seeley Lake, MT. 59868.

If you want to auto deduct from a different bank, contact that bank directly for the correct deduction form. The auto deduction amount should be submitted to AAI's account at Citizens Alliance Bank. The bank's routing number is # 091904856. AAI's Account number for your deposit is #38383.

Both of these methods have been used by several of our members for over a dozen years, and are proven to be secure. As stated by Bob Green, AAI President, who has been a sustaining member from the start: "I enjoy the ease of becoming a sustaining member. My support amounts to more than an individual membership, but I don't miss the small withdrawal that the sustaining membership contribution amounts to each month. Yet, I know that these memberships become a substantial dollar amount for AAI and help support this organization that has brought important cultural resources to our valleys for over 29 years! Sustaining membership brings stability. Please join me in becoming a sustaining member."
